The Friends welcome your donations of books and magazines for the used book sale. Proceeds from the sale of donations benefit the Uinta County Library, and all donations are tax deductible.

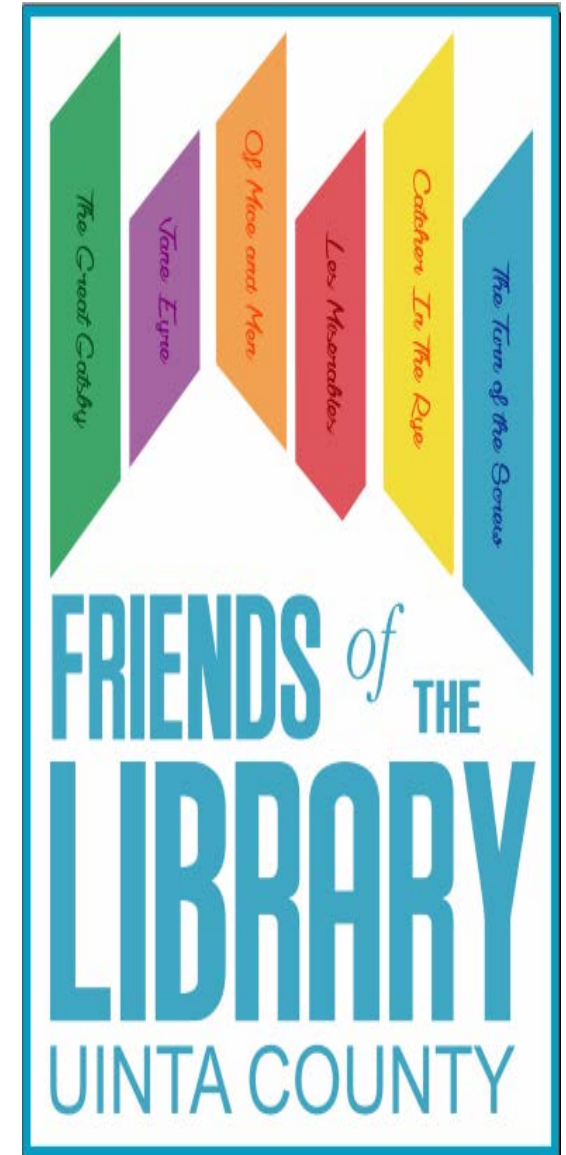

Donations are accepted at all Library locations. Large donations should be made at the Evanston Branch, 701 Main Street, and can be delivered to the garage. To make arrangements for the drop off of large donations, call 783-0480 and press 2 for Circulation.

Why Advocate?

Of the 23 Wyoming County libraries, the Uinta County Library ranks

- 19th in staff expenditures per capita
- Last in collection expenditures

The library's rate of acquisition for new materials is 1.24%. That means it would take 71 years to replace the full collection at the current rate. This is equivalent to the period from WWII to now.
